Boulder County BuildSmart – HERS Raters

National Registry of Accredited Home Energy Raters Servicing Boulder County.

Since May 1, 2008, new residential construction and additions in unincorporated Boulder County implement requirements of the county's residential green building code, Boulder County BuildSmart.

We encourage you to familiarize yourself with these regulations and establish a relationship with a HERS rater so that you will understand the potential effect the Boulder County BuildSmart program may have on your project.
