

The 2017 YESTERYEAR FARM SHOW

At the Dougherty Museum

See our website at: www.yesteryearfarmshow.org

Friday, August 25th thru Sunday, August 27th, 2017, at the Dougherty Museum, one mile S. of Longmont, CO. on Hwy 287. Hours 9am – 8:30pm.

The Yesteryear Farm Show features working displays of antique tractors and farm machinery, steam engines, stationary engines, threshing and baling demonstrations, blacksmithing, spinning and weaving, square dancing, etc. There is no parking fee, and entrance to the show is also free!

Food and soft beverages will be available.

Free primitive camping to exhibitors.

(Note to exhibitors: Overnight security will be provided beginning Tue. eve. Aug. 22nd, continuing thru Sun. Aug. 27th.)

The Yesteryear Farm Show will conduct a fund-raising auction of misc. donated items at 4:00pm Saturday Aug. 26th. The auction will be conducted by D&E Auctioneers. Our special thanks to them for their continued support! The main feature at the 2017 Yesteryear auction is a restored 1940 John Deere Model A "Slant Dash" tractor with electric start & three-point hitch. A very nice running machine! In addition, there will be many other items for sale. Many items will be farm related, others not. All exhibitors - and visitors too, are invited to take part.

For more information call Harvey Nelson at (303) 776-5171 or Dave Brown at (303) 776-9859.

NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THEFT OR ACCIDENTS. NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ALLOWED.
