

Boulder County Volunteer Initiatives Program

Boulder County strongly values and actively supports volunteerism, as an integral part of a thriving community. The Volunteer Initiatives Program promotes county government volunteer opportunities, responds to general inquiries from the public, and collaborates with community partners. This program also manages county government volunteer projects including countywide reporting and recognition. While this program is housed within the Community Services Department, it provides resources to county staff overseeing volunteer programs in any department or office.

2016 Volunteer Contributions to the County – By the Numbers

By donating their time and talent, volunteers enhance Boulder County government services and the quality of life in the community.

2016 Grand Totals:

6,450 volunteers – ongoing plus one-time volunteers

133,256 volunteer hours

$3.2+ million contributed to Boulder County by volunteers

Per Independent Sector, the national estimated dollar value of volunteer time for 2016 was $24.14 per hour.

These grand totals are the aggregate of two reports combined. One report covers volunteers serving on boards, commissions, task forces and committees. The second summarizes activities in volunteer programs such as mentoring youth, maintaining trails, and much more.

Impacting the Lives of Volunteers

Community members volunteer for a wide variety of reasons:

Make a difference in our community

Learn something new

Meet great people

Share their talent

Have fun

“I expected to have fun with the kids at Head Start and that has certainly been the case. The teachers, teacher-aides, staff and leadership work together in fluid ways that always have the kids' best interests at heart.”

Ralph Milliff, Community Services Department volunteer

“Being a Victim Advocate for the Boulder County Sheriff's Office has been one of the most rewarding experiences I have had during my adult life.”

Ginny Fiorini, Sheriff's Office volunteer

“Volunteering gives me the opportunity to be re-enchanted with nature and help protect the beauty in our own backyard.”

John Reed, Parks & Open Space Department volunteer

Celebrating the County's Volunteers

The Boulder County Commissioners, in coordination with the Volunteer Initiatives Program, celebrate the important role volunteers play in the community by hosting an annual volunteer recognition ceremony during National Volunteer Week. In addition to this awards program, departments and offices recognize the significant contributions of their volunteers in many creative ways throughout the year.
