FOR OUR HEALTH AND FOR OUR ECONOMY

STAY SIX FEET APART

If you can’t keep distance
WEAR A FACE COVERING

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

ACCORDING TO BOULDER COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH

Every person within Boulder County must wear a face covering outside their residence at any time social distance of at least 6 feet from any non-household members cannot be maintained. Children aged 12 years or younger and anyone whose health would be inhibited by wearing a face covering are exempted from the requirement (Pursuant to Colorado Revised Statutes (“C.R.S.”) §§ 25-1-506, 508, 509, and 518)

Maintain 6 feet of distance wherever possible.
