Community Protection Division District Attorney's Office

What are Election Crimes:

 Intentionally deceiving qualified voters to prevent them from voting (this is also known as voter suppression and it is also a federal offense)

Intimidating someone to try to influence their vote

 Campaigning either inside or within 100 feet of an election center

Disinformation about the manner, time, or place of voting

 Providing inaccurate election dates or false claims about voting qualifications or methods

Voting when you are ineligible to vote

 Voting more than once, or using someone else's name to vote

What to Do:

Have an election plan and know when, where, and how you will vote:

Remember in Colorado:

- Registered voters are automatically mailed a ballot
- You can track your ballot by registering with BallotTrax: www.GoVoteColorado.gov
- Registered voters can decide how to vote, whether by mail, dropbox, or in person
- Mailed ballots can be dropped off at any drop box in the state or returned by U.S. Mail
- If voting by mail, ballots must be received by your County Clerk by 7 p.m. on Election Day (TIP: Mail your ballot by Oct. 26th to guarantee arrival by Election Day)
- Voters can register to vote on and through Election Day (*ID required)
